Scoring

Give yourself 1 point for each time you answered YES and 0 each time you answered NO.

If you scored less than 15 points, you almost certainly need help. Our market information suggests that you are unlikely to be in the top 25% of suppliers. In most cases, only the top 10% get noticed by customers.

Many companies realise they need help after answering the "20 Warehousing Questions". If you're not totally comfortable that your current Logistics processes are the best they can be, can you risk not improving them, knowing that they could be so much more?
